

RECON valencia

Job offer Reference: 0614_81/ 2

Job: Lead Engineer Shipbuilding as site manager

Company: our client is an important international shipyard and is looking for engineers for international assignments. Its main products are tug boats, high-speed ferries and offshore boats.

Beginning: Q3 or Q4/2014

Requirements:

1. Academic qualification: Naval Architect or Marine Engineer with experience in shipyard industry
2. Experience: 5 years of relevant international work experience in engineering of ship industry (design & building of ships vessels). Practical knowledge with software packages such as AutoCAD. The candidate has to be quality conscious, precise and accurate.
3. Tasks:
 - Evaluate shipyard Works to be done in close collaboration with client and the entire team
 - Lead the shipyard site as a functional manager
 - Team responsibilities
 - Conducting feasibility- and risk analyses when preparing construction and maintenance plans
 - Planning and budgeting of own engineering and subcontractors work
4. Knowledge: Project Management, CAD drawings, Ship-specific-installations
5. Languages: Fluent English C1
6. Driving license B

Workplace: Venezuela, contract with the European HQ company

Salary: between 50-70.000 € fix, completely depending on work experience level, plus international travel allowances

Permanent contract: with 6 months probation period