

Our people are our future – Unser Team ist unsere Zukunft

Maier Group is hiring a Sales Manager at its Munich office.

Reporting to the Commercial Director in Spain, the main responsibility of this professional will be to develop customers' accounts located in Italy and Germany.

The candidate will focus on;

- Designing and implementation commercial strategies;
- Reaching organizations' sales targets defined;
- Providing the support according to the client's organizations needs;
- Identifying new business opportunities;
- Building and leading solid relationships with our customers assigned.

We're looking for professionals with a background in Business or Engineering, valuing positively a MBA, with a solid experience in similar positions in the automotive industry. Italian, German, and English high level, availability to travel and strong customer orientation are a must.

At Maier we're strongly committed to the development of our people. Joining us means you can count on constant training on the job and interesting career opportunities.

Ready for the challenge?

Who we are

Maier Group with headquarters in the Basque Country, Spain, forms part of the prestigious Mondragon Corporation. We are European leaders in the decoration of plastics and manufacturer of complex injection mouldings for the automotive industry.

At sites in 11 countries around the world we specialize in chrome plating, painting, laser etching and hot stamping technologies for all major OEMs such as BMW, Audi, Daimler, GM or Jaguar Landrover.

Want to know more?

Visit us:

