

Our people are our future – Nuestra gente es nuestro futuro

Maier Group is hiring a Technical Sales Engineer at its Munich office.

Reporting to the corresponding Key Account Manager, the main responsibility of this professional will be to provide support for the development of the customers located in Germany.

The candidate will assume responsibility for all quotation and technical request of customers and will provide the support according to the client's and organizations needs. Moreover, the candidate will focus on identifying new business opportunities, acquiring and building relationships with our key customers.

We're looking for professionals with a technical or business background and experience in similar positions, preferably in the automotive industry. English and German high level, availability to travel and strong customer orientation are a must.

At Maier we're strongly committed to the development of our people. Joining us means you can count on constant training on the job and interesting career opportunities.

Ready for the challenge?

Quienes somos

MAIER Group, fundado en 1975, pertenece a la Corporación Mondragón, integrado en su división de Automoción. Es líder en diseño y fabricación de piezas plásticas decoradas y de alta complejidad funcional. El desarrollo de las personas, la participación y la cooperación con otras realidades sociales, en un marco de valores compartidos son las premisas en las que se basa el futuro de la organización. Con la sede en España y plantas, joint ventures y oficinas comerciales en once países, MAIER es un verdadero actor global.

¿Quieres saber más de nosotros?

Visítanos:

